

Myanmar

Mother Nature is a generous parent. She has been particularly gracious to Myanmar, endowing her many a fine things and making her quite like no other place on earth. It's not just our landscapes, which take in soaring peaks of mountain ranges, timeless rivers, serene lakes on plateaus, mangrove and rain forests. It is not just diverse flora and fauna resulting from varied climatic and topographic conditions. It's not just our glorious past, which dates back hundreds of thousands of years. It's not just our 100 plus races and a vibrant blend of cultures and traditions.
